A rare but splendid illustration of the phenomenon designated as mirage, was witnessed by a number of persons in North Erie street to-day. By standing in the postoffice doorway and looking diagonally through the side and front plate glass on the north side of the door an exact reproduction of the Frank Crone corner and Chas. E. Oberlin's hardware store building could be seen in the atmosphere above the residence of Lawrence Royer and the building adjoining his property on the north. It was very distinct this morning and could be plainly seen at two o'clock this afternoon. A great many people witnessed the phenomenon and commented upon it, scient fically and otherwise.

with slight bruises and scratches.

Nick Clapper, the Wooster Creok, has Bright Prospects of Securing Work in the Pesitentiary-He is Positively Identified by Officer Ertle.

Fact and law, the two important requisites, have a rigid grip on the frame of Nick Clapper, the Wooster man who was arrested at noon Saturday charged with being the companion of Mike Moran, the burglar who shot Officer Tom Hagan on the morning of May 7 last, while the latter was endeavoring, with Officer Ertle, to arrest the pair of crooks Late Saturday afternoon Clem Brownsberger accompanied the officer to the city prison, recognized Clapper prompt-ly, shook hands and talked with him a few minutes, and will testify that he talked to Clapper in this city on the evening of May 6 last and paid for a bed for him at Joe Wismer's which he did not occupy. A young man whose home is in Wooster but who worked in Gribble's livery stable last May and knows Nick Chapper personally, will also testify that Clapper sat beside him at breakfast testimony, however, will be given by Officer Ertle. When he reported for duty Saturday evening he went to the lock up and positively identified Clapper as the man who was with Moran on the memorable morning. The man's only hope, that of proving an alibi, will vanish with the evidence adduced from Brownsberger and the young man who was employed in Gribble's stables, and the testimony of Officer Ertle will complete the chain of fact which is certain to send Nick Clapper to the penitentiary.

The man was taken before the mayor Saturday night, and upon a statement that he was not ready for a hearing, his case was postponed to this afternoon at one o'clock.

talk with Clapper in the lock up at noon. He protests his innocence of the crime and says somebody here is trying to do him up. He claims he worked two weeks for the Spicer Manufacturing Company in New Philadelphia, quit because they wouldn't pay him enough wages, and came from there to Massillon on Saturday. Upon being questioned closely he admitted that he was here at the time of the shooting affray; insisted he was not out of his boarding house (Wismer's) after supper the previous night, and says he went from here to Canton and worked for Poorman. also claims that he has worked in Marion, Galion, Delphos and other places. He regretted, with tears in his eyes and and the injury it will work to his reputation. Clapper was arraigned for a preliminary hearing before the mayor this af ternoon. The only two witnesses for the state were Officer Ertle and Clem Brownsberger and each of them testified as it is stated above they would. Clapper was sworn in his own behalf, but did not help his case. The mayor bound him over to the court of common pleas in the sum of $1,000 and in default of bail was taken to Canton this afternoon.

L. Victor Teeple's Libel Suit Makes its First Appearance in Court-The Rev. Howard MacQueary Replies to Father Ignatius.

Canton, Jan. 26.—The Rev. Howard MacQueary preached last night in reply avert the unequal collision by getting to the recent criticisms of Father Igaway from the track. She succeeded in natius, the monk. The heretical rector thought it presumptions in Ignatius injury to the animal, but the engine struck the rear part of the vehicle, demolishing it and throwing Mrs. Gainey out. The woman miraculously escaped violation of the teachings of the Episcopal church, and by his celibacy, masses pal church, and by his celibacy, masses and Romish like ceremon es, was advocating a sixteenth century religion against which the church has protested from the beginning. He accused the monk of condemning him without a full investigation, and said that it would be well to remember that the heretics of to-day are the orthodox churchmen of to-morrow. He was answerable to his God for his views, and he regretted that the same spirit of persecution which in days past had burned dissenters at the stake was still animating some professed Christians, even though their wrath found vent in more refined but hardly less painful manner. The rector denies that he has received a call from the Independent Congregational church of by neighbors. A demurrer in the case of L. Victor Teeple vs. the Independent Company, of Massillon, came up before Judge Taylor this morning. The plaintiff, in this suit, claims damages in the sum of $25,-000, on account of an editorial published in THE INDEPENDENT of November 4, in which he is criticised in severe terms at Wismer's on May 7, and thus the fact will be established that he was here at the time.

RETURN OF THE WANDERERS.

The Council Committee on Water Rates Home from Their Trip.

Captain Clu'z, of the special committee of council appointed to visit a number of Ohio cities having about the same population as Massillon and a similar system of water works, returned from the trip Saturday night. Councilman Hering stopped off at Mansfield to visit his three brothers and is expected home to-day. Mr. H F. Dunbam, a representative of the water company, accompanied the committee. The territory traversed embraced about 800 miles, the an unsteady voice, that he has been cities, in the order visited, being as follows: East Liverpool, Bellaire, Ironton, Chillicothe, P qua and Tiffin. They also took a run of more than 200 miles through West Virginia, stopping in the city of Huntington. The object of the trip was accomplished, but the committee will not be able to complete a comparison of the rates charged for water before next Monday night. Mr Dunham was seen by a reporter of THE INDEPENDENT this morning and confined his talk to a statement that he was with the committee a part of the time; that three of the cities visited were not similar to the Massillon plant in the respect that they did not have stand pipes or receiving reservoirs, and that Mr. Lynch would probably be here to-morrow to assist the committee in formulating a schedule of rates to compare with those in torce in the cities named above.

The Toledo Blade cautions the farmers of this state against the blandishments of certain leaders in the Alliance movement, which, it thinks, are questionable in motive. As a matter of fact, most members of the order are Republicans, and The Blade points out as significant that while the daily edition of the Cincinnati Enquirer stands for a wing of Democracy with not the most savory reputation, its weekly edition is thundering out to the farmers that their only salvation is via the Alliance route. It will be remembered that the beloved Harmony, the Alliance organizer for Stark county, is also one of the chief functionaries in the Democratic oranization.

ECHOES FROM THE SHOPS. Note and Comment on Men and Doings at Russell Co.'s ..

There is a Monday morning brightness about things here. Mr. F. G. Borden left Saturday evening for Pittsburg, whither he goes in the interest of Russell & Co.

William H. Stansbury has returned from a business trip to the western part of the state for Russell & Co. We understand that after he had put the machinery in order, the farmer invited him into the cellar, and if he did, we will wager a nickel that the farmer's wife shed tears when she came to inspect her milk crocks.

Several of A. Shorb's associates at the shop paid their respects to him at his home yesterday, and were treated to a visit among thousands of plants, in tropical clime under a sky of glass, in his handsome greenhouse. Although burned out sometime ago, Mr. Shorb is, with characteristic energy, again supplying the needs of his customers.

Brother John Monweiler is now in the excensively engaged in the pigeon busi ness. If you see him coming, get your gun ready.

For the information of those who have expressed some concern as to what the committee will do that was appointed to examine by-laws and constitution of the Benefit Association, it is here stated that it has been learned from the best authority that the committee has held a meeting and no great changes will be recommended. Mr. Heggem says that a meeting will be called at the proper time to dispose of the matter.

When one approaches the average c.tizen, and especially he who has grown old jogging along in the ups and downs of the institution which, by their selfsustaining nature and permanency of growth have had no little to do with forming the character of this solid and steady going old town, of which they have become a fixed part, and whispers into his ear a story of great manufacture ing concerns that would begin with employment for ten or twelve hundred men and double the number almost before the mortar would be dry in the walls, knocking at the door for admission, he is usually rewarded by a pale, sickly smile that has the faintest suspicion of deep commiseration for the pitiable condition of one's mental faculties and makes him feel like going round the corner and. putting his fist in his mouth. administer to himself a kicking for not having consulted his arithmetic.

Several contributions have, with tears, been consigned to the waste basket by the autocrat of this department, on account of their containing matter irrelevant to the generous purposes of this de partment, which was established for the exaltation of those who may be fortunate enough to receive mention in it, as well as to chronicle what is going on in this busy end of the city, with a view to the edification of the remainder of population. EDITOR;-It is a very pleasant thing indeed, after the spry little "newsie" has brought the paper, to look over it and read of the proposed improvements, of which our own little city can undoubtedly boast in the near future. That THE INDEPENDENT IS struggling right manfully to put Massillon among the progressive cities of its size, is apparent to all, and the various opinions expressed therein, by men both good and from the age of 8 years up to the grand-true, are interesting and entertaining. father of 84. God only knows how Though we can boast of many enterprising establishments, and should be aiming continually for improvements, would it not be well to proceed gradual ly, and give the working man a chance to pay for the little home he may be buying, and educate his family? It would give him and his wife (for 'tis she who helps shoulder the burden,) some little chance to take their noses off the grindstone and enjoy life a little. Why need we plunge into the luxury of city hall or paved streets all at once, and deny ourselves a great many individual comforts in consequence? And good, kind Mr. Editor, we do also pray and beseech thee, not to set forth before the public, the opinions of men who own not a square foot of ground, nor anything else that they have earned for them selves; who have nothing to be taxed yet are so anxious to see these grand improvements going on, which it costs them nothing. The opinions of selfmade men, good, substantial business men, who are tax-payers, are appreci ated by all; but that a matter so important should be pressed in the least by any who have no taxes of any consequence to pay, seems an unjustice to those who do pay taxes; while the same free and easy "cusses" (begging pardon) enjoy the benefits equally with those who placed them before his idle high-(And She's Another Woman.)

LOTS OF LYMPH. Dr. Meur, of Denver, Coming Home

Loaded with the Great Cure. LONDON, Jan. 26.—Dr. A. J. Meur, of Denver, Colo., sailed for New York on the Trave last week with four bottles of Dr. Koch's lymph, enough for 16,000 injections. Dr. Meur has been studying the Koch cure in Berlin for two months and has established a Koch hospital in Denver for the treatment of consumption. The manner in which this came about is somewhat peculiar. Meur arrived in Berlin he found that it was impossible, under the new German law, to obtain lymph for any other than hospital purposes. He did not repre-sent any hospital and it looked very much as if his journey would be with out result so far as obtaining any of the precious lymph was concerned. But the doctor did not give tup. He cabled to Denver to establish a hospital at once, which was done under the auspices of the State Medical college, and then he came on to London, where he found enough citizens of Denver to sign his credentials as the authorized representative of the new institution.

ELOPED WITH TWO MEN.

An Illinois Woman Who Has a Mania fo the Practice.

St. Louis, Jan. 26.—The experience of a lot of elopers furnished the police with a peculiar case to-day. Nine years ago a peculiar case to-day. Nine years ago Marshal Doyle, was buried to day at the Joseph Holdener, a young man of Catholic cemetery. He died of sc riet Belleville, whose father was a prominent fever. undertaker at Belleville, Ill., eloped from that place with Mamie Palmer, a pretty 15-year-old girl, from Chester, Ill. They came here and were married.

Their married life was uneventful till a few months ago, when Harry Cook, alias Fisher, eloped from Indianapolis with a married woman, and also came to this city. The woman died last August, and then Cook became very much infatuated with Mrs. Holdener. The latter's husband had befriended Cook and had segured him a remunera-Cook, and had secured him a remunerative position. The upshot of the affection between the two was the elopement of Cook and Mrs. Holdener to-day, and now the disconsolate grass widower has concluded to return to his father.

A DESPERATE DUEL.

Two Cow Boys Quarrel Over a Game of Cards and Do Battle to the Death.

CHEYENNE, WYO., Jan. 26.—Details of the duel between cowboys at Lander have been received which show it to have been a deliberately planned affair. One of the cowboys goes by the name of "Six Shooter Billy" and the other is called "Dab." Their trouble arose over a game of cards and they decided to settle it with six shooters. They adjourned to a corral near the ranch buildings. Several cowboys attempted to stop the fight, but without success. The men stood back to back, then each walked fifteen steps, turned and com-menced firing. "Six Shooter Billy" was killed, four bullets striking him before he "Dab" was shot three times—in the shoulder, head and hip. He is lying at the ranch in a dying condition.

Two Passengers Fatally Hurt.

INDIANAPOLIS. IND., Jan. 26.—The electric motor on the street car line between this city and the suburb of Irvjuston jumped the track a mile east of the city Saturday and turned bottom-side up in the ditch. Mrs. Mary Brown and Miss Minnie Frederick, of Irvington, were badly, and perhaps fatally, injured, and Conductor Tom Kennedy was seriously bruised. The car was a complete wreck.

Minnesota Sports Excited.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 26.—The athletic clubs of St. Paul and Minneapolis were thrown into consternation Saturday by the introduction of a bill by Senator Dean, of St. Paul, making all public fistic encounters, challenges and the conveyance of challenges misdemeanors in the eyes of the law. The half dozen mills arranged to occur in February will be cut off if the bill

THE TRADES AND LABOR ASSEMBLY Object to the Location Here of Factories Employing Children.

At a regular meeting held by the Mas sillon Trades and Labor Assembly on Saturday night it was resolved, as a body composed of the five different labor or ganizations, to unanimously and bitterly denounce the statement made by Mr. A. . Packard in your paper of last week on the 22d inst., in regard to offering in ducements to factories to locate here which employ women and children, at such low wages as he has reference to. many there were in the family that made those fifty-five dollars a week! "The Broom-maker of Carlsbad." The Elmira, N. Y., Gazette says: James Reilly is a comedian who has no prototype on the stage to day. He is natural and not strained in his efforts, and he possesses a pure dialect and a sweet voice something like Joe Emmet's when he was Emmet, and not the shadow of former greatness that he now is. There's a charm of simple German tolk character of his speech and action in Yohann that is as human as Joe Jefferson in Rip Van Winkle, where he carries the little children on the stage, in fact, Reilly is a replica of Jefferson in German type. It is not so great as a play, but it serves as a setting around Mr. Reilly's Yohann that is entirely pleasing. With the that is entirely pleasing. With the newspaper notoriety that Emmet has attained, and with the will power to withstand the temptations that beset the popular actor, he must some day become as famous as Fritz. Mr. Welch plead elequently his side of the case inbehalf of the board; Prof. Graber made his own defense with his usual flow of sarcasm and irony, charging the health officer with malicious intent, etc., while D. J. Wolf did the thing justice in behalf of the citizens, by way of cress-ex smining. On the whole, the case was rich, rare and racy, and the mayor in his wisdom reserved his verdict until to night at seven o'clock, when an excited and eager throng of citizens will be on hand to hear the result. Both sides have plenty of sympathizers.

unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck; which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases. and very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. If you suffer from scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, my little boy, three years old, being a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. We all took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and all have been cured of the scrofula. My little boy is entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy." W. B. EX-MINISTER MIZNER.

He Talks Freely to the San Francisco Reporters on the Barrundia Affair and Thinks He Acted Properly.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.-Minister Mizner, who arrived from Guatemala Saturday, talked freely of his removal. He said he thought Mr. Blaine was not the author of the letter he received from the state department censuring his conduct, but that it had been written by a subaltern and signed by the secretary of state without careful perusal. Prior to the death of Gen. Barrundia, Minister Mizner had procured his safe conduct out of Guatemala. "It was impossible for me to think of giving all my per-sonal attention to the Barrundia matter," said the ex-minister, "as the interest of the United States and the peace of five republics seemed to demand all my time and attention just at that moment. On Aug. 26 the basis of peace was finally agreed upon and I could see that my labors were about to be re-warded. The day before that Gen. Bar-rundia entered Guatemala on the Acapulco. In finally advising Capt. Pitts to surrender the rebel, I believe I acted in strict accord with all precedents and with international law." Mr. Mizner described Barrundia as a common criminal, who was wanted for other crimes than those of a political nature. Mr. Mizner will remain in this city for the present and then proceed to Washington to state his case to the secretary. He is not over sanguine that the treaty between the five republics will last long.

NEW YORK SNOWBOUND.

A HEAVY STORM SATURDAY NIGHT DOES GREAT DAMAGE.

A Fierce Rain Turns to Snow and Sleet, Which Caus Wide-Spread Damage to Electric Wires and Poles - Telegraphic Communication Cut off and Streets Blockaded - The Storm Was General Throughout the Eastern

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—A storm, which set in late Saturday night and continued until noon yesterday, was the se verest experienced here in the way of cutting off communication with the outside world since the great blizzard of March, 1888. Telegraph, telephone electric light and fire-alarm wires ar down in all directions. Advices from New Jersey and Long Island report : similar state of affairs. Several nar row escapes are recorded in the uppe part of New York City. The streets ar covered with wires and fallen poles The whole story of destruction will no be known for several days, although it is believed that no human lives are lost. The storm reached New York about 11 o'clock Saturday night in the shape of rain, which changed to snow and sleet at midnight. It is thought the storn did not extend more than 100 miles in

The storm extended over the entir on through the lowe region from Southern New York New Jersey, Delaware and south of Maryland. At 8 o'clock yesterda morning there were but few wires rule. ning from the Western Union office and at 9 o'clock nearly every wire wa rendered useless. At one time con munication to Philadelphia, Albany an Boston was entirely cut off. The wire to Albany were the first to resume worl ing, which was at 1 o'clock. CHURCH FAIR LOTTERIES.

Bishop Ireland Forbids All Games of Chance.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 26.—Archbishop Ireland last night issued a letter to the clergy of the archdiocese of St. Paul, in which he peremptorily forbids every practice that in any way resembles a lottery at Catholic fairs, prohibiting al selling of chances, raffles, fish ponds postoffices and other devices generally in practice at such entertainments and upon which church people largely rely for their receipts. The letter has created general interest.

A Fatal Hunting Trip.

OMAHA, NEB., Jan. 26.—A special from Rock Springs, Wyo., says: William Mosgrove, mayor of Rock Springs, went thirty or forty miles up on the mountains last Thursday with Charles Williams on a deer hunt. They returned Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, and at 4 o'clock Mosgrove was a corpse. The camping out in the severe climate up on the mountains was too much for him, and the suffering he endured on the way and after he got home is said by those present to have been terrible beyond description. Mosgrove was one of the old landmarks of this mining camp, and for many years kept the American house, the pioneer hotel of

The Senatorial Contest Getting Both Warm and Interesting.

OMAHA, NEB., Jan. 26.-A Pierre, S. D., special says: Considerable; speculation has been indulged in regarding a new turn in the senatorial situation. The fusionists are strongly talking of fixing on either J. W. Harden or Speaker Seward as their choice and let the ballot determine the strongest to-day without a caucus. It is said nearly, if not all, the Democratic and Independent members have agreed to vote for the one of these two who show up the greatest vote on joint ballot. Harden is of Democratic pedidree, while Seward has always figured in politics as a free lance. Moody takes his evident defeat, caused by the unseating of the Lawrence county members, coolly and desires to remain the caucus nominee of the Republicans until he or some other one is named. Senator Pettigrew, who has been here laboring earnestly in Moody's behalf, is said to feel worse over the sit-uation than Moody. There is still strong talk of the Republican members of the house seceding and organizing a separate body, though the more con-servative regard this action as revolu-

A RIOT AMONG THE HUNS.

Several Discharged Foreigners Endeavor to Incite a Riot.

ALTOONA, PA., Jan. 26.-A riot took place at Bennington Furnace Saturday among the discharged Hungarians. Superintendent Eugene Cunningham was badly used up. The men had been employed by Messrs. Fogg and Scribner, railroad contractors. For some reason a number of them were dis-charged, and in return endeavored to persuade their fellow workmen to quit. The latter refused and a battle followed, in which picks, clubs and shovels were used freely. Superintendent Cunningham received ten severe cuts on the head. Chief Weir and the police force of this city visited the scene of the riot and succeeded in arresting 14 of the Hungarians, who are now in the Al-toona prison. Some of the Hungarians were seriously injured.

A Canard.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The story in an evening paper to the effect that Frank Kline, a salesman for Arnold, Constable and Co., New York City, had been drugged and robbed in a State street saloon, taken to Klaner's morgue and afterward resuscitated, proves to have been manufactured out of the whole Inquiry at the morgue disclosed the fact that no such affair took place as related. Last night A. V. Kline, a drummer for Arnold, Constable & Co., emphatically denied that he had undergone any adventure like that pictured in the evening paper, and he was indig-nant that his name should have been connected with such a silly story.

ACCIDENT ON THE ICE.

THE YACHT CARNIVAL WRECKED AT ERIE.

While Spinning Along at the Rate of a Mile a Minute the Runners Come in Contact With a Log and Death and Destruction Follow - The Skipper, Hiram Fidler, Instantly Killed and Henry Schaffer Fatally Injured-Several Other Persons Seriously Bruised.

ERIE, Jan. 26.—The ice yactht Carnival was wrecked on the bay here yester-One man was killed, another fatally injured and a number of persons were seriously bruised.

The bay is frozen over and presents a broad expense of smooth, hard ice. Yachting has been the favorite pastime for several days, and among the swiftest and staunchest crafts in the fleet of white wings that have been skimming the surface of the lake is the Carnival, owned and navigated by Mr. Hiram Fidler. Yesterday there was a spanking breeze blowing and Mr. Fidler and a party of friends started out for a spin on the ice.

The boat was bowling along at the rate of a mile a minute, when just ahead appeared the end of a log protruding a little above the ice and hardly visible at a few feet distance. Before the skipper could turn the course of the yacht the runners struck the obstruction and the runners struck the obstruction and the passengers and crew were sent flying through the air as if shot from a catapult. The boat was a complete wreck and at first sight it appeared as if the whole party had been killed. Mr. Fidler was lying on the ice with the blood oozing from a ghastly wound in his head and Henry Schaffer was lying near him stunned and bleeding. The other members of the party though hadly members of the party, though badly bruised, were soon able to move about. The two most seriously injured men were removed to their homes. Mr. Fidler died in an hour and it is thought that Mr. schaffer cannot recover.

OF SPRING DRESS GOODS.

PLIVE HARPER TELLS THE LADIES ABOUT NEW FABRICS.

They Will Be Wonderfully Handsome This Season, and the Styles of Making Up Are to Be Novel and Altogether Pleasing. Pictures to Help the Description.

[Special Correspondence.]

New York, Jan. 22. - The spring goods have begun to arrive, and there will be busy times among the importers for a few weeks until the lovely fabrics have all been carried off by the retail houses, and spread before the eyes of the eager buyers, who, however much their husbands and fathers talk about hard times, still throng the stores.

The most prominent new fabrics of the coming season will be grenadine in many varieties, but black will be most

A GOWN OF GRENADINE.

The black grenadine is in all wool and silk or all silk, and the weave is semi-transparent, with no lace effect at all. There are grenadines with wide stripes of satin face and narrow stripes, singly or in clusters, and dotted with a great variety of dotted effects, and checked as well as quite plain iron than many mothers who have no other

There is one black crape grenadine which is most beautifully soft and sheer, and it drapes exquisitely, the surface showing a rich, lustrous black, never before equaled in such goods.

There are silk grenadines in navy blue, with silvery white stripes, some of them two thread and others half an inch wide, and there is a pearl gray, with ivory satin stripes, which is very delicate and beautiful.

The polka dotted grenadines have the dots separate and irregular, in clusters of three and five, and large oval dots with small round ones woven in upon these; but to my taste the elliptical dots and figures are prettier than any of the others. There are a very few brocaded grenadines, and a great many of the tamise or sieve mesh. All are beautiful and all soft finished. They will be made up alone, and self trimmed or mingled with the plain, as is shown in the first figure, which has the petticoat front of dotted and the rest of plain meshed black grenadine, the whole trimmed with rows of silk moss trimming, which will be largely employed for garniture this season.

There are some exquisite soft crepes in a very deep crinkle which will be popular for home and full dress, made up alone or with soft India silks. They are in the new shades of mauve, orange and red, besides blue, pink and cream. They are dignified this season, these colors, by classical names, and are called after the different goddesses, such as Venus, Psyche, Calypso, etc. The new red is the very reddest red I ever saw, and is called rouge du diable. Still it is really a pleasing color.

In new spring woolens there is such a variety, and all so worthy of special description, that I shall wait until next

There is one beautiful new material which is between a camel's hair and a serge, with a sort of undressed kid effect. This is used to make walking dresses of,

SERVICE CLOTH WALKING COSTUME. and it has bands of embroidery which go around the skirt as in the second illustration. The waist is made plain basque effect, bordered with the embroidery, and with it is to be worn a cape trimmed with the same embroidery. The whole suit is elegant and ladylike, and the material comes in all the new colors. Tan and bark, coffee and light browns are favorites embroidered in darker or lighter colors.

The child's dress is made of the same material as that of the mother, with a front of plaid satin, which is among the new goods this spring. It is in several shades of brown. OLIVE HARPER. SUNDAY DRESS PARADE.

Nellie S Stowell Views Fifth Avenue on the First Day of the Week.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 .- If the angels can really look down from above what a curious sight they must see! For they behold not alone the outward adorning, but the inner furnishing of the hearts of the men and women who make up the moving throng.

Fifth avenue, New York, on Sunday, after the various congregations are dismissed, is a moving panorama of good clothes and restless eyes. There are two lines of pedestrians-one moving up, the other down. One line starts somewhere in the vicinity of Central park, and rolls downward like a resistless tide; the other begins in the region of Madison square, and, unlike ordinary streams, gathers volume as it goes up hill. Little rivulets of people trickle into the main current from all of the side streets, and lose themselves in the moving mass. Just stroll along slowly down the street. Take the outside of the walk, for New Yorkers always turn to the right, and we will not jostle or be jostled.

Do you see that little woman in black? She wears widow's weeds. Demure looking, isn't she? Doesn't look as though she earned every dollar that supports herself and four little ones by sewing, does she? But it is true; and she comes out every Sabbath day, not altogether for the sake of going to church, for she hasn't time for that, although she hopes she is a Christian, but to see what people are wearing, and to get the prevailing styles. I know she has her prayer book, and am well aware that you are frowning, but I think her sin will not be accounted grievous on the great day of reckoning. She cannot spare the time for church except occasionally, because this is the only day she has for her children. She rises early, gets them ready for Sabbath school, and while they are gone she puts her house in order. It is her only day, you know. After luncheon she takes each child to her room for an hour and exchanges confidences with it, hears all of its little troubles and perplexities, and reviews the week with it. She finds out if its Sunday and week day lessons are learned, and who it talks with, what it says and hears. When she has tucked the last little sleeper in on Sunday night she knows much more about their inner life care than the education and training of their little ones.

Don't you think her mild deception after church will be forgiven her? There! Look at that woman. She is the picture of amiability, isn't she? But woe to the unfortunate woman who incurs her displeasure! She can forgive a man anything, but nothing can atone for any slight or offense from a woman. And the strangest part of it is, she doesn't know that she is uncharitable. Trifles turn her amiability to venom, and she broods over them until she really believes she is the most abused woman in the world, and that it is her duty to denounce and punish those who offend her.

That man? Oh, yes, he is spoken of as a philanthropist. He is pompous, opinionated, stubborn. Well, maybe his gifts to public institutions will atone for some of his private sins, but they are grievous and many. He turned his youngest daughter out of doors because she married against his will, and when her hus band died and she was left with a sick baby and destitute, this old sinner refused to see or help her, and the baby died "for lack of proper nourishment," the doctor said. Envied? Oh, yes, by thousands, for they only see the veneer of charity with which he has incased himself, and they think him a great and

Do you know that lady? Unpretentious looking, isn't she? But there are abodes of poverty where her face brings smiles and welcoming words, and substantial blessings follow in her train; there are food for the hungry and warm clothes for the destitute. She doesn't need to have her name blazoned on earthly tablets, for it is recorded in heaven, and surely the registering angel smiles and touches his pen more gently to the page as he writes her name.

There is a man who lives entirely upon his wife's earnings. He got that diamond from her by threats of self destruction. She gave it up to preserve peace in the household. She has been obliged to allowance him for years, and he has well nigh bankrupted her several

And that-oh, yes, the old story. He was a millionaire once, and he wasted his substance in riotous living. Now he begs you to give him a few cents for a cup of coffee, he says, but it will go into the till of the rumseller. Don't give him money. I have no doubt he is hungry so take him into that restaurant and give him some food that will be whole

Ah! the throng has vanished. The people who wore the good clothes have gone home to dinner, and those who come out to see them have gone home to make notes, while we have only moralized a bit, and whiled away the hour before our Sunday's midday meal.

HOME RULE DISCUSSED.

SPEECHES BY LORD HARTINGTON AND MR. PARNELL.

Mord Hartington Said That Home Rule's Only Chance of Becoming a Practical Policy Has Gone Forever-Mr. Parnell Says That the Kind of Home Rule They Will Obtain Rests Entirely With Irishmen-He Was Too Kind to Gladstone.

LONDON, Jan. 26.-Lord Hartington on Saturday, during the course of an address to his constituents at Rossendale, Lancashire, and speaking of the question as to whether home rule was dead or living, said: "Its only chance is gone forever of becoming a practical policy. It is probable that the unity of the Irish party will be restored, as the confidence of the Gladstonians in the political honesty of the Parnellites is permanently sapped. It is more necessary than ever that any measure for home rule should be strictly guarded and limited by provisions securing the unity of the kingdom. The government is prepared to pass whatever remedial measures could be of practical utility in Iraland." Ireland.

Mr. Parnell's Opinion.

WATERFORD, Jan. 26.—Mr. Parnell yesterday addressed in this city the largest meeting that has assembled to hear him during his present campaign. Mr. Parnell said that Hartlepool had declared entirely for him in the recent election, and that it depended upon Irishmen themselves what kind of home rule they obtained. He admitted that he was at fault in being too amiable with Gladstone at Hawarden, but he promised that he would not repeat that mistake. He had never known anything to be got out of negotiations with Gladstone, and he was glad they had been broken off. After the meeting Parnell was presented with addresses by the town corporation.

IS IT INGALLS OR NOT?

Farmers' Alliance Says No; Republicans Say Yes.

TOPEKA, KAS., Jan. 26 .- At the Farmers' Alliance senatorial caucus Saturday, after the various candidates had presented their claims, it was decided to defer the balloting until Monday, but a resolution was adopted and signed by all of the members, declaring that the subscribers to the document would vote to the last against Ingalls. It is also stated that it was decided by the caucus to unseat two Republican representa-tives at to-day's session. This will increase the Alliance vote in the joint ballot to 94, and will reduce the Republican vote to 64. The Alliance will then have 30 plurality over the Republicans and a majority of 21 over all. It will and a majority of 21 over all. It will require 83 votes on joint ballot to elect. The Alliance men claim they will elect an Alliance man on the first ballot Tuesday to succeed Mr. Ingalls. Speaker Elder said to-day that by no possible means could Ingalls be re-elected. Ninety-one members, he said, were in heaver bound to yet a gainst Ingalls and honor bound to vote against Ingalls, and he had no doubt that the two members to be seated in the place of the Republicans would also give their pledges to the same effect.

Senator Ingalls to-day held numerous conferences with his friends, and they say Ingalls will succeed himself. The Alliance, they say, will be unable to

HENRY GEORGE BROKEN DOWN.

The Single Tax Champion Seeks Recuperation in Bermuda.

New York, Jan. 26.—Henry George's health was very much broken down when he sailed for Bermuda a few days ago. He had lost in weight, his face was shrunken, his countenance was pallid and he walked with a dubious step. His manner was greatly changed, and even his voice had lost its characteristic expression. He tried to keep up his spirits when at the dock, and was evidently striving to appear cheery when exchanging parting salutations with his friends there. He himself said that he felt feeble, but was hopeful of recovery when he could secure rest. He was always of a hardy nature until recently, and was able to take life in a light hearted way, but twenty years of writing and lecturing in many countries had been too much for his constitution. He is now in his fifty-second year.

KILLED BY HER SON.

A Horrible Domestic Tragedy Enacted at Springfield, O.

Springfield, O., Jan. 26.—At 9:30 Saturday morning Mrs. Bridget Doyle, a widow of 66 years, was found dead in bed, with all the indications of a bloody and violent death. The bed and all d stiny. Every day houses are rented, were covered with blood splashes and a lessold, situations obtained, help sepool of blood had formed on the floor beside the bed. The post mortem ex-amination leaves no doubt that she was killed by a blow on the head and that the blow was administered by her son John. The unnatural monster fought with his mother like a wild beast.

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN SOLD.

A Party of Boston Capitalists Pay $1,000, 000 for the Battlefield.

CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 26 .- A party of Boston capitalists, now in this city, representing a New England syndicate, purchased Saturday the Lookout Mountain Land company property, including the railroad from Chattanooga to the top of Lookout mountain, the Lookout inn, about 600 acres of the best located property, the celebrated and historic "Point," Rock City and the Lulah lake and Lulah falls. The consideration paid is nearly $1,000,000. Improvements on an extensive plan are contemplated.

Over the Falls.

NIAGARA FALLS, Jan. 26. - Shortly after 6 o'clock Sunday evening a well dressed young man of about 20 years, over the bridge leading from Bath Island to Goat Island. The water being shallow, he clambered out on to a cake of ice attached to the pier. The man refused assistance tendered by the keeper of Goat Island, plunged into the swift current and was carried down out of sight. He probably passed over the falls. A Cleveland dispatch states it is supposed the suicide was C. E. Stanley, SHORT OF FUNDS.

The Unpleasaet Predicament of an Ohio School District.

DAYTON, O., Jan. 26.-For the first time in the history of this city, or at least within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, the coexisting conditions are present of a treasury empty of school funds and the inability of the board of education to borrow money to meet the monthly pay roll of teachers and employes. The situation did not develop until about 250 teachers, who had flocked to the treasurer's office to get their month's salary, were turned away empty

The board at a session Thursday night authorized the finance committee to mako a temporary loan of $20,000 with which to pay the salaries. When the committee applied at the several banks Saturday they were refused on the plea of lack of money. The committee then appealed to Treasurer Huffman, but that official declined to advance, inasmuch as the board had already drawn upon the December collection of taxes in excess of the limit allowed by law. The total December collection payable Jan. 21 is about $107,000. The law allows the treasurer to make a partial distribution prior to settlement day of a semi-annual collection in a sum not to exceed two thirds of the collection. The sum of $72,000 slightly in excess of two thirds of the collection, has been distributed.

A PROMINENT OHIOAN DEAD.

Editor James Taylor, the Discoverer of Sunday Creek Coal Lands, Passes Away.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 26.-Word was received here to-day of the death of James Taylor at his home in New Lexington, aged 66 years. He was one of the pioneer editors of Ohio and has been an editorial writer of The State Journal for many years. He is a brother of Col. William Taylor, the well-known correspondent. After returning from the war deceased wrote a series of articles upon the mineral wealth of Perry county, which attracted great attention, as he was the real discoverer of the rich coal lands of Sunday Creek valley and projector of the Toledo and Ohio Central railroad as its outlet to the lake. His articles came to the notice of Gen Thomas Ewing, now of New York, who, with the late S. S. Cox, became associated with Taylor in developing Perry county and building railroads. In 1872 they were offered several millions of dollars for an interest by a New York syndicate, but refused, and during the financial crash of 1873 they failed, and their coal lands were sold for taxes. The completion of Taylor's project a few years later made the fortunes of several men, among whom were Hon. Charles Foster and Senator Brice.

WRECKED IN A TUNNEL.

A Freight Train Breaks in Two and Smashes Things Generally.

SALIDA, COL., Jan. 26.—The passenger train from the east, due here at 3:10 yesterday morning, was delayed until noon by the wreck of a freight train near Howard. The freight left here on time and had proceeded as far as Howard, when in some manner it became uncoupled, breaking into three sections, which crashed into each other in the tunnel. Several cars were smashed into kindling wood, and two tramps who were stealing a ride were seriously injured, and a brakeman named Ralph States had both legs broken below the knees. The brakeman was brought to this city at an early hour this morning agree upon a candidate, and that enough votes finally will go to lngalls to elect him.

and is at present at the Rio Grande Hospital. The physicians think that his injuries are of a very serious nature. One of the unlucky tramps had his left arm broken, and the other sustained such severe injuries about the head and face that he will die.

South Dakota Ranchmen Find That a White Man Is the Thief.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 26.—A ranchman named Tom Hetlund, living west of here, is accussed of stealing fat cattle from other ranchmen, driving them to Pierre and selling them to butchers. A vigilante committee from Fort Pierre went out to Hetlund's ranch Saturday, but found him missing. The ranchmen have all along thought that the Indians were doing this stealing, and now they are very indignant to find it was a Connors, the Wrestler, Wins. CEDAR RAPIDS, IA., Jan. 26.—Three hundred people witnessed the catch-ascatch-can wrestling match at Greene's Opera house Saturday night between Tom Connors, of Chicago, and "Farmer" Burns, of Scott county, Ia. The match was for $500 and 75 per cent. of the gate receipts. It was the best three in five. Burns won the first and fourth falls. Connors won the second, third and fifth and the match.
